Building and Preserving Alaska's Future

Workshops you won't want to miss:

- Branding: It doesn't take a genius to see that the way companies communicate to customers is drastically changing. David Taylor of SugarSled Branding explains some simple ways companies and organizations can not only talk to their customers, but inspire them.
- OMG – I have a COE contract, what now? OMG I got a Contract Now What Do I Do? This discussion centers around important pre-construction activities that occur after contract award but before construction can begin including various planning documents and meetings related to Quality Control, Accident Prevention, Environmental, SWPPP, along with a discussion on administrative requirements such as project schedules, RMS/QCS, correspondence, submittals, and pay requests just to name a few. Presented by Chris Morgan, Assistant Area Engineer and Chief of Office Engineering for the Southern Alaska Area Office & Paul Schneider, P.E., Assistant Area Engineer and Chief of Office Engineering for the Northern Alaska Area Office.
- Legal Presentation with Julia Holden, Bankston, Gronning & O'Hara, P.C.
- Contractors Forum with Q & A, With DV Contracting, CH2M Hill, and more.
- Agency Panel with USACE, 611th CES Elmendorf AFB, 3rd Contracting Squadron Elmendorf AFB, FAA, Department of Public Works Fort Richardson, & the Department of Transportation.
- LEED Join Jerry Ouzts, Civil Engineer, Sustainable Design and Development (SDD) when he talks about Government requirements and goals and gives guidance on how to meet those expectations.
- Banking/Bonding/Insurance with Jake Askren, First National Bank Alaska, Chris Poblieglo, Business Insurance Associates, Inc. & David Lamothe, Northwestern Mutual.
