AGC Safety Committee Update

AGC of Alaska's Safety Committee invites you to an informal evening networking function at our Anchorage office before the busy construction season cranks up. AGC's "SAFETY SOCIAL" will be Wednesday, February 15th from 5-7 pm at the AGC office. We'll have some evening refreshments in a networking setting, and several of AGC's safety vendors to show their goods or services. No speeches, no presentations, just a few vendor goodies, some quick door prizes and a pleasant time. AGC members are invited, please RSVP Barbara at 561-5354 or barbara@agcak.org.

The 31st Annual Alaska Governor's Safety & Health Conference will be held March 19-21 at the Egan Center in Anchorage. For more information and to register, visit www.labor.state.ak.us/lss/asac.htm.

AGC of Alaska's latest "Safety Spotlight" nomination (for recognition of safe jobsite behavior) goes to the workers of ASRC SKW Eskimos on the Nullagvic Hotel Project in Kotzebue. Please take a couple of moments to read about it here! If you would like us to recognize a particular person or company for their demonstrated commitment to safety, please use the nomination form and fax to AGC at (907) 562-6118 or email to barbara@agcak.org.

Contracting 101: Back to Basics Series Update

The AGC office in Fairbanks has been holding the "Contracting 101: Back to Basics" series of FREE 2-hour classes aimed at training or refreshing our members on business and contracting "basics." The Anchorage office is working to replicate this series as well! The Anchorage series will launch March 5th, which happens to be during "WIC Week" (Women in Construction). Watch "This Week at AGC" for dates, topics, and other details.
