

M. J. (Matt) Elmer is the Chief Operating Officer for Oil Search Alaska and is located in Anchorage, AK.

Matt began his career with Conoco in 1981 as an engineer for North America Exploration and Production in Lake Charles, Louisiana. He took his first internal transfer in 1984, and spent the next nearly 30 years with ConocoPhillips progressing through a wide range of engineering, operations and management roles. He had assignments in: Houston, Texas; Wilmington, Delaware; Ponca City, Oklahoma; Farmington, New Mexico; and Anchorage, Alaska. He had the opportunity to support or work directly at most of the ConocoPhillips U.S. assets, including serving as the Western North Slope Operations Manager as ConocoPhillips was expanding its footprint on Alaska's North Slope.

Matt Elmer
Chief Operating Officer
Oil Search Alaska

Matt joined Denbury Resources in July 2012 as Vice President – Gulf Coast Operations and then moved to PO&G Resources as their Chief Operating Officer in 2016. Matt joined Oil Search as Senior Vice President – Production Operations in May, 2019. He was promoted to his current role in December, 2019.

Matt was born in 1959, in Utica, New York. He received a bachelor of science degree in Petroleum Engineering from Marietta College in 1981 and is a Registered Professional Engineer in the State of Louisiana.