

Misty Dawn Crim

Misty Dawn Crim, Owner of M.I.S.T.Y. Consulting (misty is saving time for you). She formed the company in 2013. MISTY Consulting is a business and administrative company that provides bookkeeping and other admin duties for both the Generals & Subcontractors. Misty has been in the construction industry since 2001. She has served as the NAWIC Alaska Chapter (National Association of Women in Construction) President, Vice President and has served other position with that organization. Along with being incredibly involved with AGC in which she has been on multiple committees for that organization.

As Lifelong Alaskan, a graduate of East Anchorage High School. She takes pride in making and keeping Alaska a great state to live in. She is married to Stephen for over 23 years. She has 2 children and a grandson.